

The Kalamazoo Earth Day Coalition
invites you to a free 2-part live webinar series via Zoom.us:

“Health & Disease: An Ayurvedic View” - Part 2 of 2
Topic: “Maintaining Health & Balance with Ayurveda”
Featuring: Bill Courson, Doctor of Ayurveda
Certified Herbalist; Faculty Member & Dean of Students,
BVI School of Ayurveda, Kalamazoo, MI

Date: Thursday, April 23, 2020
Time: 1:30-3:00 p.m. Eastern Time (US and Canada)

Program Description: In this presentation Bill deals with Ayurveda’s therapeutic strategies that address the individual who is “out of balance” with Nature (i.e. "diseased"). He discusses how those imbalances may be prevented and allayed. Awareness of the ayurvedic approach to health, disease prevention and longevity is especially relevant today as we reconsider our lifestyle in this time of global climate crisis.

There is no pre-registration required for this program.

However, if you plan to attend this session, we request that you send your name and email to Ruth Small, Ph.D., Administrative Director, BVI School of Ayurveda at indiaink47@gmail.com. She will return the favor by sending program material to you in advance.

This Zoom meeting allows for 100 individuals to attend.

It would be wonderful to have that many people, so please forward this email and invitation below to anyone you feel would enjoy Bill’s two presentations on Ayurveda.
